You have learnt about different types of money and why it's important to keep money safe. Here are some more fun things you can do or talk about at home.

You learnt where you can keep money safe, and that some places are safer to keep money than others.

▪ Finders keepers.

Draw pictures of places around the house that you think are safe to keep money.

THINK! There are other places you can keep money safe – like a bank.

You learnt that we don't just use coins and notes to pay for things. There are other ways to pay like plastic cards, vouchers, and sometimes even a phone.

▪ Ask an adult.

Can they show you any plastic cards they use to pay for things?

THINK! Cards are money too! You need to keep them safe, just like coins or notes.

You learnt about the different coins and notes we use to pay for things.

▪ I'll name that coin.

Ask an adult at home if you can name all the coins and notes they have in their wallet or purse.

▪ Animal magic.

Pick some coins and draw around them to make a snake. How many different animals can you make?

THINK! About the best places to keep coins and notes safe at home.

You learnt that we can feel sad when we lose something we value, including money.

▪ Treasure hunt.

Find 3 things from around the house that you want to keep safe. How would you feel if you lost any of them?
